IRENAS, Senior District Judge:

This matter appeared before the Court upon Plaintiff's
Motion for Preliminary Injunction (Docket # 10) and the Gloucester County Times' Amended Motion to Quash Subpoena (Docket

15). In the Order dated May, 1, 2007, the Court neglected to include a provision memorializing Defendant's consent to allow Plaintiff to return to school. Having reviewed the submissions of the parties and having heard oral argument, for the reasons set forth in an opinion pronounced in open court on the record, and for good cause shown,

IT IS on this 2nd day of May, 2007,

ORDERED THAT:

1. This Court's Order dated May 1, 2007 (Docket # 17) is hereby VACATED.
2. The Gloucester County Times' Amended Motion to Quash Subpoena (Docket # 15) is hereby GRANTED without prejudice.
3. Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Injunction (Docket # 10) is hereby DENIED.
4. Plaintiff is hereby granted leave to file a Third Amended Complaint to plead additional counts arising out of Defendant's purported communications with third parties about the underlying events of this action, provided that he do so within seven (7) days of this Order.
5. By consent of the parties, effective April 24, 2007, Plaintiff is permitted to return to school without any conditions imposed on his return.
6. By consent of the parties, Defendant shall expunge all references, if any, in Plaintiff's school records to the events underlying this action, including Plaintiff's alleged misconduct and Defendant's response thereto, and shall not add any such references in the future.
7. By consent of the parties, Defendant shall provide Plaintiff with six (6) hours of tutoring, which shall consist of two (2) hours per day for three

(3) days, representing the three days Plaintiff was absent from school as a result of the underlying events of this action. Such tutoring shall be completed at a mutually convenient time and place within ten (10) days of the date of this Order.
